

A snapshot of service

A day in the life of the San Diego Public Library

October 6, 2010

Central Library's Children's Room

On Wednesday, October 6, 2010:

- 25,887 people visited their library
- 28,481 items were checked out or renewed
- 6,701 people used a library computer
- 1,064 adults, teens and children attended programs

Mountain View-Beckwourth Branch Library

Volunteer Christine Workman restocks the shelves. Last year, more than 2,700 volunteers contributed over 156,000 hours of service at the Library--a contribution valued at more than $3.2 million.

North University Community Library

The Library is more popular than ever and circulated over 7.7 million items last fiscal year--the most in its 128-year history.

Mission Valley Branch Library

Library staff member Eric Rife (right) helps Jonathan SanAgustin. In a June 2010 survey, Library patrons gave Library staff a 92% satisfaction rating.

Central Library

San Diego Public Library

Your Link to the Past & Gateway to the Future

San Diego Public Library
FOUNDATION

820 E Street • San Diego, CA 92101 • (619) 238-6638

Visit SupportMyLibrary.org to learn how you can support reading, literacy and education